The Rotary Youth Trust for Luton was set up by the four Rotary Clubs in Luton on the centenary of Rotary International in 2005 and as lasting reminder of “Rotary in Luton”. The aims of the Youth Trust are to identify local young achievers not only of leadership quality but also in cultural, vocational and academic pursuits and to provide financial assistance and support where necessary, and by raising awareness amongst young people and increase their participation in youth activity programmes. In 2016 a significant endowment from the Steel Charitable Trust will allow the Youth Trust to increase award-giving in the name of the “Robert Steel Memorial Awards”.
